On 11/15/16 at 0045 hrs. I responded to a Miscellaneous call at The Villas at Oakcrest Apartments #421 at 7255 Lee Hwy. Jalisa Justice called police because she wanted her boyfriend, Stephone Washington, kicked out of their apartment. She is the only one on the lease, but he's established residency and has lived there for months. When she realized that we could not force Washington to leave, she decided to contact the front office in the morning about the issue.

On 11/15/16 at 0844 hours, I was dispatched to found property at 1503 S Highland Park Ave. Upon arrival, I spoke to Emmett Oliver who directed me to a pallet jack that was located in an alleyway. Mr. Oliver did not know who the pallet jack belonged to. I checked several businesses in the area but could not locate the rightful owner. The manager of Rogers' Supermarket (Jon) stated he could keep it in his store until the rightful owner is located. Dispatch placed a note on the card to notify me if someone should later report a stolen pallet jack. No further police action was taken.
