On 12 01 16 I, Capt. McCullough 835/44883, responded to 3637 Hixson Pike on the report of someone passing a counterfeit bill at the Favorite Market Store. Store clerk Kellie Millsap reported to me that two customers, both of whom are known to her by name, passed a counterfeit $100 bill in exchange for store merchandise at approximately 1000 hrs, 12 01 16. The suspects left the store in a maroon mid-sized vehicle bearing TN tag . This tag is registered to a female, and the registered vehicle color is not accurate so it is not known at this time if this is the correct number. The vehicle also had plastic covering one of the windows. The suspects were both described as black males, approximately 27 years old, 5-9, skinny, with dreads. The store has video which I was able to view but they are not able export the video for evidence at this time. The store manager will prepare a copy of the video for later pickup. The primary suspect who passed the bill is reportedly named Demetrius Montgomery, while the secondary suspect's name is either Kendrick Tremaine Kennemore, or Tremaine Kendrick Kennemore. Both suspects reportedly live in East Lake but hang out at 4518 Hixson Pike. The counterfeit bill was turned in to Property under number 16-4781. This case will be forwarded for detective Followup.
