On December 12th, 2016 at 1619, I, Ofc. Deleon #620, responded to 3708 12th Ave. on regards of a suspicious activity call. I arrived on scene and spoke with the reporting party, Brian Pelfrey, and stated to me that he is a maintenance worker for the property of 3708 12th Ave. and noticed that a party, who stated her name was Shannon Speck, was trespassing on property. Mr. Pelfrey continued on to state that the current tenant of 3708 12th Ave. stated that she knows who she is, but was gone for several days and now she is living inside of her home without her permission. There was also belongings that did not belong to the tenant that were located inside of the residence. Also located was a broken window along with the ceiling and walls of the residence filled with 'smoke webs' due to whoever using the residence at that time operating a non-authorized portable furnace. At this time, the statement received from the tenant seemed keep on getting amended several times and it is unclear whether the tenant gave the parties permission to stay at this residence or not. I gave Mr. Pelfrey my business card along with my phone number and asked him to give me a call or the Chattanooga Police Department if these parties were to be at this property again.
