On 12/28/2016 at approximately 1530 hours, police responded to Eastgate Town Center to speak with the complainant, Ms. Cathy Welch, regarding a miscellaneous complaint.

Upon arrival, police met with the complainant, who informed police that several months ago, she tried to rent a house at 724 East Ave. Ms. Welch stated that she signed a rental agreement with the landlord, Ms. Corey Bisher, but that since she was applying for Section 8 at the time, she wasn't able to move in. Ms. Welch put a lot of her belongings in the house, however, and parked her vehicle at the house. Ms. Welch was unable to get Section 8 and ended up not renting the house. Since her belongings and vehicle were at the house, but she was not renting the house, the landlord asked Ms. Welch to remove her vehicle and belongings. Ms. Welch did not remove her belongings from the house and the landlord eventually removed all of Ms. Welch's belongings and had them thrown out. Ms. Bisher informed police that she gave Ms. Welch almost two weeks after the notice to remove her belongings. Ms. Welch claimed that Daryl, who stays at 726 East Ave, took the battery from her car and put it into someone else's car. She claimed that she was unable to move her vehicle for this reason. She claimed that someone else named Andy took the key from her daughter's volkswagen, and that a man named Tony took the tag from her vehicle to put on his vehicle.

Ms. Welch also informed police that she entered into a verbal agreement with all the parties involved, and that she just wanted her stuff back. Police spoke with Andy from 726 East Ave and he informed police that Ms. Welch gave him the key to the volkswagen so that he could work on the car.

Ms. Welch stated that she did not want to press any charges at this time.

At approx. 1930 hrs. 12-30-2016, while working an extra job as security at Hamilton Place Mall, 2100 Hamilton Place Blvd., I was notified by Mr. Dye, loss prevention at Belks, that he needed to take a warrant out on Ms. Butman for theft over $1000. The incident occurred 1900 hrs. 12-27-2016 when he observed Ms. Butman enter a fitting room with several items, place all the items on her person, and leave the store without paying for the items. Ms. Butman was confronted by Belks loss prevention and she was able to flee the area by vehicle. The delay for the warrant was due to not having all of Ms. Butman's information at the time of the incident. The total value of the theft was $1,690.00. The incident was captured on video. Mr. Dye was escorted to Sessions court and a warrant was taken out on Ms. Butman. D1/R2

Mr. Bravo stated that he had arrived at 1603 E. 18th St., Mr. Jeronimo's residence, to drop of payment for a job that Mr. Jeronimo did for Mr. Bravo. At approximately 2240 hours, three unidentified suspects, wearing all black and full face masks, approached north up Watauga St. and turned East onto E. 18th St. continuing toward Mr. Bravo and Mr. Jeronimo.
