19-009966                      1/30/2019 10:30:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      837 Ashland Ter

On 01/30/2019 at approximately 22:45 hours, Officer Andrew Serret (79886) responded to a noise complaint at 837 Ashland Terrace. Upon arrival I spoke to the complainant Avery Piercy (██████████). Avery informed me that his neighbor at 841 Ashland Terrace, has been starting his truck late at night and revving the vehicle's engine; while Avery and his significant other have been trying to sleep. Avery states that he yelled out of his window tonight to tell the owner of the truck, later identified as Dakota Hensley (██████████); to turn the truck off. Avery states that the mother, Misty Hensley came out and began to yell back at Avery. It was at this time that Avery called for police assistance. I then spoke to Dakota and his mother Misty; to which they stated that the truck had been turned on and running due to Dakota putting antifreeze in his vehicle so it wouldn't freeze over night. Dakota then stated that Avery had actually been yelling profanity and aggressive language towards him, and that's why Misty stepped in. Misty's story corroborates with Dakota's as she stated that she only got involved because she heard someone yelling and cursing at her son. At this time, I informed Avery that I could not enforce a noise complaint, due to noise ordinance not going into effect until 2300 hours and that it would be in his best interest, that if he has an issue in the future with his neighbors; to walk over and talk like adults and not yell/curse at them through a window which might also be seen as being disorderly. Dakota was informed to just try and work on his vehicle's earlier on in the day, and that this report would be made for all parties benefits; not just Avery's. Nothing further.

While passing the Cascade motel on Ringgold Rd, "Tabitha" suddenly yelled to stop the vehicle and he did. Mr. Ransom told police that he spoke with a bank manager on Friday about the matter and he found out that he would be responsible for the fraudulent funds because he had the pin number written down in his wallet next to the card. Mr. Ransom stated that the bank took his S.S. check and that he still owes First Tennessee approx. 465. Police spoke to his neighbor, James Porter, about the incident and he stated that he was in the car the whole time and has no knowledge of any money scam. No warrant was found on either party.
