18-013860                      2/15/2018 7:30:00PM                      91Z Suspicious Activity                      4907 Greenview Dr

On 02/15/2018 at 19:45 hours, Officer Hans Anderson (75367) responded to an anonymous report of suspicious activity at 4907 Greenview Dr. Upon arrival, police observed a black male and a black female in the driveway of the house, with several doors of two vehicles open, including the trunk of one vehicle that was backed up to the house. According to the anonymous complainant, the owner of the house was not at home and the vehicles did not belong at this house. Police got out and asked the two parties who they were and what business they had at this location. Both parties tried giving evasive answers, saying they knew someone who was related to someone who owned the house, but it was clear to police that neither party lived at this location. Police asked to see ID to verify who the parties were. The female party, LaToya Stamper, cooperated fully with police, but the male party did not cooperate, stating that he lost his ID. When police asked what his name was, the male party stated his name was "Randy Floyd", DOB 3/30/1987, but could not recall his social security number. Mr. "Floyd" then began asking why police were asking him questions and became visibly nervous when police returned to the patrol car. As soon as police returned to the patrol car, Mr. "Floyd" ran into the house and did not come out again for the remainder of the call. Police were not able to verify Mr. "Floyd's" identity. While police were still on scene, a resident of the house showed up, Ms. Sharon Hardy, who began to be visibly irate that police were at her house, even when police explained that they were investigating suspicious activity. Police were able to verify that Ms. Hardy was a resident of this location, but police were never able to find out the true identity of Mr. "Floyd".

No further police action required at this time.

Mr Morton said there were no distinguishing marks on or about the vehicle. He had no suspect information and no known direction of travel. Mr Morton's vehicle was entered into NCIC as stolen, NIC # V510102176. The vehicle was also bolo'd city wide. I did speak with Deputy J Bennett with the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office who stated he was out with a vehicle fire earlier in his shift at approximately 2303 hours, that was found to be a dark colored chevy, possibly a Malibu matching the description of Mr Morton's vehicle. Deputy Bennett said no Vin # could be found, nor a registration number to the vehicle to due the heavy fire damage. Deputy Bennett stated the HSCO complaint number for the incident is 18-005039 and the vehicle was towed to Doug Yates Towing at 1346 Quail Valley Rd. No further Police action taken at this time.

On 02/18/2018 at 09:05 hours, Officer Moser (60250) reported a memo at 1310 Reserve Way. I spoke to the complainant, Mark Mathis who stated that someone is sending him information on his Facebook account about getting loans for $100,000 dollars and the account is showing being sent from his friends account. Mr. Mathis stated he spoke to his friend who stated that he has not been sending things to him and believes that his account was hacked. Mr. Mathis stated he has also been getting phone calls from the unknown person about the loan but the number says it is not in service when called.

Mr. Mathis just wanted to file a report about the incident.
