19-019718 2/28/2019 11:40:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2301 Elmendorf St

On 02/28/2019 at 23:45 hours, Officer Sanchez (73514) reported a memo at 2301 Elmendorf St. Upon arrival I spoke with the complainant, Tanya Brown ([REDACTED]), who explained that she was in a verbal disorder with her daughter, Nikita Hale ([REDACTED]). Tanya stated that she and Nikita were arguing over various problems, and eventually Tanya went into her room and shut the door. Nikita came to Tanya's door and demanded to be let in so that she can retrieve the keys to the car and leave. Tanya stated that Nikita could not take the car as the car is in Tanya's name and does not belong to Nikita. At that point Nikita barged into the room and began rummaging through Tanya's belongings. Tanya told Nikita to leave the room multiple times, but Nikita failed to do so. Tanya then began pushing Nikita out of the room, and Nikita pushed back. That is when Tanya left the room and called police.

I then spoke with Nikita, who corroborated Tanya's story, stating that she needed the car because she did not want to be there. It was found that Nikita does not have a valid driver's license so she would not be driving. Nikita stated that she just wanted to go to her room for the night, and Tanya stated she wanted to be left alone as well. Both parties were separated and they each stated that they would leave the other alone for the night. Because there was no physical harm done to either party, the primary instigator is unclear, and the disorder was primarily verbal, there is no police action required.

19-020096 3/1/2019 11:39:00PM 91Z Field Interview 212 Georgia Ave

On 03/01/2019 at approximately 23:39 hours, Officer Andrew Serret (79886) initiated a Traffic Stop with a Nissan Sedan displaying TN [REDACTED] at 212 Georgia Ave due to observing the defendant make a U turn on the veterans bridge, crossing multiple lanes of traffic unlawfully. Upon making contact with the driver I was informed that the driver was a Lyft Driver and that he made the U turn to get to a passenger he needed to pickup. The driver was identified as Zachary Ware ([REDACTED]) and I informed him that his maneuver especially at nighttime when people try to speed across the bridge was very unsafe not just unlawful. Zachary had also forgotten his license at home but is showing to have a valid drivers license for the state of Tennessee. At this time, I issued Zachary a warning as his Motor Vehicle Record does not show him to be a habitual offender for traffic offenses. But I informed Zachary that this report will be made and that Zachary's name will show as having a Watson report completed; addressing his traffic violations tonight. Nothing further.
