On 2/26/2017 at approximately 0600 hours, I, Officer Schwartz #314 responded to 2610 Long St on reports of a disorder. Upon arrival I made contact with the victim, Mr. Quentin Brown. Mr. Brown stated that he and the suspect (his girlfriend) had gotten into an argument and she had smashed his radio in his 2008 Chrysler 300. The suspect stated that he did not observe this event happen but his niece did. He further stated that she had taken the keys to his truck and he wished to have them returned.

Upon speaking with the suspect, she stated that she had caught the victim cheating on her and was driving his car at the time. She stated that the car was left at her mothers house in College Hill Courts. She stated the damage to the radio had occurred prior to tonight.

I was able to locate a vehicle registered to Mr. Quentin Brown that matched the description given and found that the LCD screen on the cars' radio had obvious damage [REDACTED]

Nothing further.

On 02282017 at 1637, I, MPO Ric Engle #968, responded to a harassment call at 1712 E Boy Scout Rd. Upon arrival, I spoke to the victim, Ashley Sullivan.

The victim told me the suspect, Heather Brownfield, has been posting face book messages about her which are offensive and sending text messages to her which are also offensive. The suspect is mad at the victim because the victim is dating the suspect's ex-husband.

The victim and the suspect have been sending texts back and forth for over a day. I told the victim to cease contact. The victim did not want to press charges at this time, but wanted the harassment to stop. I told her to send a text message to the suspect informing her to cease contact and remove negative remarks from face book and give her the complaint number of this report. The victim did that in my presence.

I told the victim to call police back tomorrow if the text messages continued and she wished to press charges. No other police action taken at this time.
