3540 CUMMINGS HWY

On March 4, 2015, Mr. Narendra Patel contacted the Chattanooga Police Department to report that an unknown party is entering an open window to gain entry into the equipment room at the Baymont Inn & Suites located at 3540 Cummings Hwy.

Mr. Patel stated that they became aware of the incident when their maintenance employee found a blanket and beer cans in the equipment room.

Mr. Patel said that the person(s) was using beer packaging to urinate.

Mr. Patel stated that the window is facing the side of the liquor and is left slightly open because of the heat from the swimming pool.

Mr. Patel also stated that several homeless people are standing on the lot and will also come into the lobby.

Mr. Patel did not have any suspect information.

This report was taken by PST/Pamela Talley-Hickman 61508 via telephone.

19-020481 3/3/2019 9:30:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2304 Shallowford Village Dr

On 03/03/2019 at 09:41 hours, Officer Moser (60250) reported a disorder at the Exxon gas station located at 2304 Shallowford Village Dr.

I spoke to the complainant, Michael Lane who stated he came into the business to buy some snacks and he put a bag of cheetos ($1.89) and a bag of sunflower seeds ($2.29) on the counter to purchase.

Mr. Lane stated that sunflower seeds rang up a different price and he put his credit /debit card into the machine and was going to run as a debit card when he told the clerk that the price was wrong and he no longer wanted the sunflower seeds.

Mr. Lane stated the clerk ran the card as a credit card but Mr. Lane wanted it as a debit purchase and the card was charged $4.51 as credit.

Mr. Lane stated that he did not want the items anymore and wanted to get a refund but the clerk would not refund the purchase so Mr. Lane called for Police.

Police spoke to the manager on the phone and were able to get the clerk, Mr. Patel to refund the purchase correctly to Mr. Lane's card for $4.51 without incident.

No further at this time.
