On 03/26/2019 at 03:05 hours, Officer Dorman (75380) observed two parties sitting in an improperly parked silver Toyota 4Runner with an Alabama drive out tag at 800 Hooker Rd. Police identified the occupants as Cornelius Boyd and Karen Johnson. Boyd has been arrested for controlled substance in the past as well as paraphernalia. A search of his person yielded only personal items, and a search of the vehicle yielded no controlled substances or paraphernalia. Boyd was found to have a non-extraditable warrant out of Georgia. Both parties had revoked licenses. Police informed them that neither own of them were allowed to drive the vehicle. Police gave them a warning for being improperly parked. Nothing further to report.

19-028334 3/25/2019 11:00:00PM 290 Vandalism 1805 Carson Ave

On 03/26/2019 at 04:00 hours, Officer Adam Krystaponis (75508) responded to a Vandalism at 1805 Carson Ave. Upon arrival, I spoke with Ms. Erma Jones, who stated that when she returned home from work, she saw her shed door was open. Upon checking the shed, I observed the handle/latch was twisted off the door and just barely hanging on the door. No persons were located in or around Ms. Jones' property. Ms. Jones went through the shed and stated that nothing had been taken, but she suspected the person was trying to steal her lawnmower, which she had put inside her house for the night. We looked at the footage from Ms. Jones security camera covering the front of the house, but were unable to locate any helpful footage. I gave Ms. Jones some ideas on how she could better protect her house. With no suspect information, no further police action taken at this time.

19-028404 3/26/2019 12:00:00PM 91Z Field Interview 103 Patten Chapel Rd

On 03/26/2019 at 12:00 hours, Officer P. McCall (0066492) reported a memo at 103 Patten Chapel Rd. While patrolling my district, I noticed a Chevy S10 backed into a parking spot behind the Americas Best Inn. From my training and experience, this is usually a sign that the vehicle is trying to keep it's registration tag from being visible. When I checked the back of the vehicle, the temp tag had been altered a lot of times. The VIN came back to a Betty Hughes in GA.

19-028406 3/26/2019 12:12:00PM 91Z Field Interview 110 Stephens Rd

On 03/26/2019 at 12:15 hours, Officer P. McCall (0066492) reported a memo at 110 Stephens Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were evicted from this address earlier this morning. They were back at the address trying to get inside. The neighbor called the police because he was afraid they were going to break in. Kristy Hayes said that they were trying to get a hold of the property owner to let them back in so they could get some stuff that had not been packed up. I stressed to them that they should just pack up what was already outside and come back after they made contact with the property owner. Kristy said they were waiting for a friend to get there to help haul there stuff away.

On 04/01/2019 at 11:44 hours, PIT Glenn (60757) responded via telephone on a report of Other Theft/Non-Specific at 920 E 17th St.

I spoke with Distribution Supervisor, David Munger. He stated that on Saturday 30 March 2019 at 0900 hours, an unknown party came onto the property and stole three(3), Mag Liner, break down dollies (hand trucks). Mr. Munger says that their security video showed that the suspect is a white male driving a red truck. Mr., Munger says that the video is not clear enough to help identify the suspect. Mr. Munger says the dollies are valued at $500.00 each.

19-030571 3/30/2019 4:00:00PM 23H Other Theft/Non-Specific 3703 Hoyt St

On 04/01/2019 at 12:00 hours, PIT McMahan (61444) responded to a Other Theft/Non-Specific at 3703 Hoyt St at the victim's home. The victim said that he last saw his dogs last Saturday afternoon around 4 pm and they were in their pen outside and the pen was secured with a tie cord. Later the next day, around 10 am, he discovered that the dogs were gone and the tie was hanging on the side of the pen. He said that someone had to remove the tie and there's no way the dogs could have gotten out on their own. This report was taken by phone.
