The story explained to me was that the vehicle had been recovered previously, yet was not taken out of NCIC. The vehicle was then sold without knowing that it had not been removed from the system. LKQ discovered it still listed as stolen when they purchased the vehicle. There was no owner to notify of the recovery and a HIT confirmation was sent/received and the vehicle was properly removed from NCIC. Det. Tony Gregory from Ringgold PD was the one on scene explaining everything to me.

On 04/04/2019 at 00:05 hours, Officer Duston Finley (66620) conducted a field interview at 600 W Main St.

Police were dispatched to two separate fires within close proximity to one another in a short amount of time. While backing up other officers and fire, Police noticed a man leaving the scene of the second fire. Police initiated contact with the man Mr. Vanleuven. He told police he had been walking home to the College Hill Courts. He told police he did not know anything about either fire. He later stated he may have tossed some cigarettes in trash cans after leaving a bar. Police got consent and searched Mr. Vanleuven and found nothing illegal. He had a large amount of unopened alcohol in his backpack and some prescribed medications.

Police then told Mr. Vanleuven that he could not stay in the courts if he was not on the lease. He said his wife was and police followed him to the home to confirm he lived there.

He entered 1410 Cypress St Ct and a female party, Ms. McElreath, met us at the door. She claimed that Mr. Vanleuven did stay at this address and that another man, Mr. Thompson, was in the home currently. Police ran all three for warrants and found none. Police got consent and searched Ms. McElreath's bag that Mr. Vanleuven had been carrying on his person and again found nothing.

All of these parties were warned about the rules about living in public housing without being on the lease and that they may be kicked out of public housing for violating these rules. No further police action was taken at this time.

On 04/05/2019 at 00:10 hours, Officer Buckman (66981) and PO Cooper (79835) reported to a possible harassment call at 901 Carter St. We spoke with the complainant, Alyssa Lawhon, who stated that Nicolette Newberry was a former employee at City Cafe and has been banned from this property, however, she is still coming back to this location and is concerned that Nicolette is going to harm her. Alyssa stated that she had received text messages from Niclolette previously, alluding to wanting to get into a physical altercation which she had already made a police report about. Alyssa supposedly told the manager that on this night, she was parked in the parking lot to pick up Wifi. Alyssa is concerned that she is hanging around City Cafe to come in contact with her. Alyssa wanted us to make a report of this incident. Ms. Newberry left when the manager asked her to and was not on scene when police arrived. Police located the original complaint number 19-029526.

19-031950 4/5/2019 3:15:00AM 91Z Fire 480 Greenway View Dr

On 04/05/2019 at approximately 03:35 hours, Officer Andrew Serret (79886) responded to a Property Damage Call at 480 Greenway View Dr at Dollar Tree. At the time of dispatch I was informed there was a small fire at this location on the sidewalk next to the front glass window of the business. Also, I was informed Chattanooga Fire S13CF was en route to this location. Upon my arrival, Chattanooga Fire had already put the fire out but did want to document that the heat from the fire has possibly caused a slight crack in the front glass window. At the time of dispatch, it was stated that a female was suspiciously walking through the parking lot near this location but upon my arrival I did not locate or see a party matching that description. Also, at this time it is unclear as to who started the fire or how it was began. I was informed that Pam the property manager would call for police assistance in the morning to follow up with the property damage report.

19-031962 4/5/2019 12:01:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2627 Hixson Pike

On 04/05/2019 at 05:40 hours, Officer Kayla Wyatt #993 (77587) reported a memo at 2627 Hixson Pike #137. Police responded to this address on reports of a stolen license plate. Upon arrival Police spoke with Ms. Quita Crockett who stated that she believed her estranged husband took her license plate off her car in the middle of the night so that she couldnt drive it. Police asked whose name the car was in and she replied that it was in her husbands name, Mr. Jermaine Crockett. She stated that Mr. Crockett had previously stated that he had gifted the car to ther during their marriage. She stated since their recent separation he has made it difficult for her to drive the car even though he has another car he owns that he can drive. Police explained that because they are still legally married and the car is in his name, we cannot report the license plate as stolen and that she will have to sort out ownership of the vehicle in court during their divorce proceedings. Police ran the VIN number on the vehicle and confirmed that it is registered and in Mr. Crocketts name. No further Police action taken.
