18-031581 4/10/2018 4:18:00PM 26A False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidenr 101 Northgate Mall Dr

On 04/10/2018 at 20:24 hours, Officer Roberts, Galen (61098) responded to a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 101 Northgate Mall Dr. (which serves as the physical business address of the "Belk Department Store"). Charles Brock (Loss Prevention Officer) was alerted to the dissemination of counterfeit currency during three separate transactions earlier in the afternoon (1618 hours, 1626 hours and 1636 hours). An unknown African American male subject duped a sales cashier into accepting $410.00 (in denominations of $50 and $20) for purchasing $431.05 worth of miscellaneous merchandise. Brock stated that the cashier didn't have a counterfeit detector pen readily available to duly verify the authenticity of the bogus notes (an obvious giveaway was that the notes all had the same serial number). Police inspected the counterfeit notes and easily noticed that virtually all of the embedded security features (vertical lines, portrait watermarks of the respective President, etc.) were absent. The counterfeit bills were subsequently booked into the department's Property Division (#18-1477) and made available for release to the Secret Service. A lack of any pertinent suspect information only served to hinder the immediate investigative efforts of police. Case status: inactive

18-031584 4/10/2018 8:30:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 2406 Awtry St

On 04/10/2018 at 20:36 hours, Officer Doub (79522) reported a memo at 2406 Awtry St. Upon arrival, Police spoke to a Ms. Heather Dedmon. Ms. Dedmon stated she was walking her dog up the street around 2620 Stephens St. when a large dog came out of its owner's yard and started acting aggressively towards herself and her dog. Ms. Dedmon stated she ran away from the dog and it chased her down the street. Ms. Dedmon stated that she was afraid the dog was going to attack her so she fired one round into the ground to scare the dog away. Ms. Dedmon stated at that time she continued to run away to where her neighbor was outside. Ms. Dedmon stated the dog ended its chase after her. Ms. Dedmon stated she is the Block Leader and looks out for everyone in her area. Due to that fact, she had the owner of the dog's information. Police went to 2620 Stephens St. to speak with the owner of the aggressive dog, Mr. Rami Ayoub. Mr. Ayoub was very apologetic and stated his dog accidentally got loose from his chain. Mr. Ayoub stated he was going to find a better way to secure his dog so this does not happen again. No further at this time.

On 04/10/2018 at 22:50 hours, Officer T. Perocchi (79535) responded to suspicious activity at 8615 Winterberry Road. While police were going through the residence to make sure no one was there by the request of the owner, a white Acura was found in the garage. Police noticed what appeared to be a bullet hole that shattered the right passenger window. The glass was still held together with the safety material and the edges of the hole were facing inward, as if a bullet was fired into the vehicle. There was no tag on the vehicle so police ran the VIN through dispatch. The vehicle came back not stolen to Carla Koita, registered in Dalton Georgia. When police asked the owner of the residence if they knew the registered owner, she stated that she did not. Three out of four tires were flat and the back left taillight appeared to be broken. See complaint number 18-031602 to reference the original call.

18-032377 4/13/2018 8:47:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 3405 Hixson Pike

On 04/13/2018 at 08:55 hours, Officer B. Martin (62436) reported a memo at 3405 Hixson Pike. I responded to the PSC, at 3410 Amnicola Hwy, and spoke to Walter Mickulick and his attorney. Mickulick wanted to report a UHaul as stolen. Mickulick said the vehicle had been towed from the 3504 Hixson Pike address. Through my investigation I found that the vehicle had been towed on 3/9/2018. The vehicle was towed by Mostellers at the request of UHaul. According to Jessica, with UHaul, the vehicle was called in anonymously by someone saying it was abandoned on the lot. Jessica said that a check of the vehicle, at the time it was called in, showed it was passed due. Jessica said the vehicle was towed to Knoxville because it contained property that needed to be off loaded. My investigation revealed that the vehicle was not stolen but towed at the request of the legal owner.

18-032392 4/13/2018 10:50:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 205 Maryland St

On 04/13/2018 at 11:00 hours, Officer Michael Holbrook (0041318) reported a memo at 205 Maryland St. speaking with Sarah Smith. Smith alleges on this date, McKamey Animal Services arrived at her home on a complaint of her dog running large. Smith states she has two dogs, one smaller and one larger border collie. Smith admits the smaller dog was out of the yard but returned to the yard when McKamey attempted to detain it. Smith states the officer attempted to catch the smaller one but could not and instead detained the collie. The collie was wearing a shock collar and Smith alleges it was being shocked while he placed it in the truck. The officer then left but returned and offered Smith to reclaim her dog for $20. Smith believed this was not protocol and not in their policy. Sgt Phillips and myself followed up with McKamey at their office speaking with Supervisor Ross. She states the $20 reclaim fee is in fact their protocol and policy. Ross stated she will allow Smith to reclaim the dog since it has not made it back to the shelter. I spoke with Prince Muhammad, the McKamey officer who responded, who states he received a call about two dogs running large at this location. He states he attempted to detain both but the smaller got away but was able to detain the big one. He states he tried to talk to Smith but she was very aggressive and irate and became hostile even threatening to block him in. He states he was able to leave before the situation escalated. Muhammad and myself went back to Smith's residence and he allowed her to reclaim the collie and offered her a receipt for the $20 fee. Smith refused to sign the receipt. Smith has pending court date issued by McKamey for the running at large charge. Incident was resolved without further incident. BWC was activated.

On 04/13/2018 at 14:40 hours, Officer Moser (60250) responded to a Damaged Property Accidental at Hamilton Place Car Wash located at 2210 Gunbarrel Rd.

I spoke to the victim/complainant, Anthony Bailey who stated he took his vehicle to the car wash and when he went to get into the vehicle after it was washed and dried, he noticed that his left front tire was flat.

Mr. Bailey looked at his tire and noticed that his tire stem had been bent and it was not like that before getting his car washed and his tire was not flat.

Mr. Bailey spoke to the manager, Tina who stated that a customer had told her that his tire was flat before he went into the car wash and she got busy and was unable to tell him.

Police along with Tina and Mr. Bailey watched the video of his vehicle being driven while at the car wash, during the wash and after and the video did not show well enough if the tire was flat or not.

Mr. Bailey stated he would make contact with the owner about having his tire stem fixed.

No further information at this time.

18-032784 4/14/2018 8:30:00AM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 3204 Amnicola Hwy

On 04/14/2018 at 09:00 hours, Sgt. O'Brien (63030) reported a memo at 3204 Amnicola Hwy. This date the CPD Property Division requested a report regarding a recovered firearm being turned in. Specifically, the Wasatch County S.O. (Utah) had recovered a stolen firearm. They removed same from NCIC and determined that the original victim (Mr. Barth) now lived in Chattanooga. They then shipped the firearm to CPD so that CPD could return the firearm to the owner.

We confirmed that the firearm was not in the NCIC system. In addition, we attempted to contact the reported victim/owner without success (voice mail left). I completed all appropriate paperwork (including a release) for the firearm to be logged into CPD Property. When the owner makes contact, CPD Property Division will follow normal protocol for releasing a firearm. No further action at this time.
