While writing a report backed in off a gravel road on 38th St a white Ford Escape passed by me at an extremely high rate of speed. I attempted to pull out behind the vehicle and it cut down a side street immediately. I attempted to catch up to the vehicle but I soon lost sight of it before getting close enough to get a tag on it. I relayed this information via in car radio to my teammates and Ofc. Wiegand would shortly after find the vehicle and get behind it. He attempted to stop the vehicle around the 3800 block of Kirkland but it did not yield to his emergency equipment. Instead it turned onto 37th St and accelerated before four parties bailed out of the vehicle on foot and left the car in drive. Officer Wiegand still had eyes on the vehicle and ran to stop the vehicle from crashing into the leasing office at the Alton Park Villages. All parties ran away in different directions and Officer Wiegand was unable to get descriptions on the parties. Inside of the vehicle an ID and computer was found to have Ms. Beavers name on them. Contact was made with her at 725 Fulton St where she made a theft from vehicle report (21-052736). In total about $950 of items were stolen from Ms. Beavers car. The Ford Escape was dusted for prints which yielded nothing usable. Two phones were located in the vehicle as well as keys to an Acura and a Nissan and some clothing. A follow-up will be done on the cell phones and at Alton Park Villages' leasing office since the parties ran directly in front of their camera.

Mrs. Nguyen agreed to allow the customer to leave so they can gain means to return and pay. Mrs. Nguyen stated the party did not return. Mrs. Nguyen did not state when the party needed to return by. Due to Mrs. Nguyen allowing the customer to leave without establishing a clear return by date a warrant will not be applied for at this time. Mrs. Nguyen stated a desire for police to attempt to contact the customer identified as Patricia Higginbotham as noted on picture of driver's license and request they return and make payment. No contact was made. No further police action possible at this time. A follow up will be attempted.
