19-052410 5/30/2019 12:00:00PM 91Z Suspicious Activity 5681 Bunch St

On 05/30/2019 at 11:46 hours, Officer Branam (70776) reported a memo at 5681 Bunch St. The caller, Sallie Henson, stated that her neighbor (Douglas Dickson) had trimmed her bushes without permission. On arrival, Ms. Henson explained that the bushes reside on their property line and create a desired barrier; however, in her opinion, he was trimming his side of the vegetation too short to maintain the barrier and he utilized her property during the trimming. Ms. Henson stated that she would like Police to tell him to stay off her property and to stop trimming her bushes. I explained to Ms. Henson that without a properly marked property line, I could not determine how much trimming would be qualified as her bush.

I then spoke to Mr. Dickson. He stated that the bush was overgrown and he appears to be the only person to maintain it. He stated that the bush was so overgrown, that the individuals that rent his property, could not walk through this area. I explained that I could not determine how much of the bush was his; however, he is not to walk on Ms. Henson's property during his trimmings.

On 05/30/2019 at 15:21 hours, Officer Kristen Thomas (80763) responded to a Shoplifting at 2304 Shallowford Village Dr. Upon arrival, I spoke with Mr. Jigneshkum Shah, and he stated that someone stole from their store last night around 0400 hours. He said that the cashier was asleep and two white males and a female stole from the store. They then began to walk around the store while placing items in their pockets. They then walked out of the store and moments later they came back into the store. They then re-entered the store and began placing more items in their pockets. One of the males was a white male wearing a white tank top, black short and a hat, the other was a white male wearing a white shirt with black pants and long hair. After the parties left the second time a female entered the store and grabbed a pair of sunglasses and left the store. While the female was still in the store a frequent customer walked into the store and saw that the cashier was asleep and woke him up. At this time the female was still in the store and then walked out with the sunglasses. He then called the managers and they watched the video footage of the parties stealing items. They stated that the two males stole a total of $221 in merchandise and the female stole $15 dollars. I was able to capture a photo of the suspect and the photos were uploaded to the report. At this time there is no further information about the suspects. No further.

19-052705 5/31/2019 3:12:00AM 91Z Field Interview 2188 Camden Oaks Dr

On 05/31/2019 at 03:12 hours, Officer M. Dagostino (82257) reported a field interview at 2188 Camden Oaks Dr. I observed a gray 2005 Chrysler 300 (2C3JA43R85H616779) improperly parked in front of 2188 Camden Oaks Dr. The vehicle was parked in a posted no parking zone and was ticketed. Citation number Y013008. This vehicle displayed a green and white Tennessee temporary tag (██████████). This tag displayed no owner information on the back side, displayed incorrect vehicle color, and showed the issue date of 12/13/2018 with an expiration of 06/03/2019. These issues are consistent with a fake temporary tag. The owner of the vehicle is currently unknown due to the vehicle not being registered since 12/2016. Ms. Hines is the last known registered owner of the vehicle. The tag was seized and turned into property (19-2521). Nothing further to report.

Upon arrival police met with the complainant, Jamie Kerin, who told police that she had a recording showing 2 young, white males (one skinny and one heavier set) taking a bicycle from her property however her husband found the bicycle nearby their home. Mrs. Kerin stated that she simply wanted police to check the area for the parties. Police searched the area and found one of the suspects matching the description who was identified as Kobe Burchfield walking on Rossville Blvd. Mr. Burchfield told police that he was just out walking. Mr. Burchfield had no warrants and was released. Soon after, police located another party fitting the description identified as Douglas Gass. Mr. Gass stated that he was simply out walking around and was heading towards the Brew and Cue. I asked Mr. Gass if I could search his person at which time he consented. Upon searching him, Mr. Gass was found to have approximately $1450 in cash on his person. Mr. Gass told police that he was recently paid for lawn services. Mr. Gass was then checked for any wants or warrants which came back negative. He was then sent on his way. Nothing Further.

19-053135 6/1/2019 5:05:00AM 240 Theft & Recovery/Passenger Vehic 4026 Shallowford Rd

On 06/01/2019 at 05:10 hours, Officer T. Perocchi (79535) responded to an auto theft and shoplifting at 4026 Shallowford Road, the Circle K. When police arrived, they met with Tiombre Slater who told police a thin black male, about 5'6" wearing an orange shirt and khaki pants attempted to shoplift two cases of Corona beer valued at about fifty dollars (50.00). Slater said he walked out the door and attempted to get in a vehicle and got into a physical altercation with a woman while he attempted to drive away before bystanders blocked the vehicle and he took off on foot. Slater also stated the Circle K is interested in prosecuting on the shoplifting. Police then met with the woman who was involved in the physical altercation, she was identified as Tammy Owens. Owens told police she gave the shoplifting suspect a ride and knew him only as a nick name "House." When she was in the store and "House" walked out with the beer, she attempted to stop him from driving off with her silver Mercury valuing at about eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00). When he was in the drivers seat and starting to pull off with the vehicle, she opened the drivers door and tried to turn the vehicle off and take the keys and she fell injuring her knee before bystanders blocked his movement. Owens denied EMS and stated she did not want to prosecute for the auto theft, and both Slater and Owens told police that the suspect left on foot east on Shallowford Road. Police checked the area and did not locate the suspect.

19-053385 6/1/2019 9:49:00PM 91Z Damaged Property Accidental 4711 Tarpon Trl

On 06/01/2019 at 22:12 hours, Officer Shelor Nicholas (78349) responded to a Damaged Property Accidental at 4711 Tarpon Trl. Upon arrival, I spoke with Mrs. Willie Weaver; she stated that she heard a loud noise outside her house and when she looked out, a car hit a tree in her yard. She then walked outside and looked at the car and thought that it was the neighbor's car. Another neighbor walked down the street and said that they saw a younger black male get out of the vehicle and then moments later the vehicle began to roll into the yard and then down a hill and hit Mrs. Weaver's tree. They then walked down and opened the door and no one was in the vehicle and it was in neutral. Mrs. Weaver stated that the car was seen across the street before and they might know who's it was. I walked over to the neighbor's house and found the owner and told him that he left his car in neutral and it rolled down the hill and hit the tree. He then came and removed the vehicle and parked it back at the house he came from. Mrs. Weaver stated that the plants and sign that she had where the car hit was worth $200 dollars and the amount of damage to the vehicle would cost around $500 to repair. No further.
