On 07/02/2019 at 01:56 hours, Officer Caleb Brooks (62866) reported a memo at 1121 E 36th St. Police responded to 1018 E 38th St to meet with the complainant about a suspicious call he received. Upon arrival, I met the complainant Mr. James Free. Mr. Free stated that he owned a landscaping business and that he received a strange call from one of his clients, Yvette Williams, recently. Mr. Free played the message from his voice mail for police. The message appeared to be very muffled with different voices saying things like get the door, load up the van, and fuck this let's go. Mr. Free stated that he believed that his client might be in some kind of trouble and requested that police check on her. He then informed police of her address, 1121 E 36th St. I informed him to wait at this location while police went to check on her. Once at her residence, police made contact with her by knocking on her front door. Mrs. Yvette Williams answered and appeared to have just woke up. I asked Mrs. Williams is she was okay and if there was anything wrong when she replied no she was fine. I then informed her why we were there to check on her. Mrs. Williams continued to state that she was fine and not in need of any assistance. I observed her to be safe and at home. I then responded back to the complainant and informed him that she was safe. No further.

19-067228 7/2/2019 12:00:00AM 26A False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence 1314 Sharon Cir

On 07/09/2019 at 12:40 hours, PIT McMahan (61444) responded to a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 1314 Sharon Cir. The victim said that he applied online for a job about 2 weeks ago with a company called Aztec Industries. He said that the company then sent him a $6000 check that he was supposed to deposit into his bank account and then use the money for business expenses. However, he said the check was denied by his bank (First Tn) and he said they told him that it seemed suspicious. He then later found out that this was a scam and he said that he had given them (Aztec) his Driver License info. He said that he believes that the company was also trying to steal money from Toastmasters International, which is the name on the check and he said that is a real company here in Chattanooga. He said that he communicated with Aztec mainly through 3rd party messaging online and he had dealt with 2 people who called themselves "Gary Priest" and "Suzane Fuller". He said that he had checked with Toastmasters and Suzanne is a real person who works for them and so evidently someone was impersonating her. However, he said that there is no way to know if Gary Priest is a real name. This report was taken by phone.
