"I wanted to let you know that this morning I spent time working on my vehicle and was able to completely make the scratch go away after some buffing. Upon reflection and rest and after speaking with the supervisor yesterday I believe that this can be handled by the supervisor. My vehicle is fine and Brett the supervisor was kind, apologetic and made it clear he would talk to the guards.

I cannot thank you enough for the time you spent with me yesterday. In some ways it is disappointing that my video is not as illuminating as it could be, but perhaps it was just meant for these guys to have a lucky day. I'm sure they will learn from the experience and hopefully everyone will just be better off letting this be.

If you need anything else from me please don't hesitate to reach out.

Hope this finds you well and thank you for your service.

Eric Wertz
