17-076378 8/6/2017 8:30:00AM 91Z Suspicious Activity 2232 Center St

On 08/06/2017 at 12:45 hours, Officer Ayriel Novak (881) responded to Deceptive Practice at 2232 Center St. Upon arrival, Police made contact with Kim Alverson, the manager at the Holiday Inn. Ms. Alverson said that two guests at the hotel ate breakfast at their restaurant this morning between 0830 and 0945 hours, and both guests asked for their meals to be charged to their hotel room. Ms. Alverson said that at some time between 0830 and 1100 hours, both guests informed her that an unknown suspect called their rooms and told them that they were from the front desk at the Holiday Inn, and that the restaurant system would not let them charge the amount from breakfast to their hotel room. Ms. Alverson said that she was told by both parties that the unknown suspect verified the exact amount of the charges from the restaurant, and proceeded to ask them for their credit card information. Ms. Alverson said that both parties did not give the credit card information over the phone, but instead went to the front desk to pay for the charges in person. Ms. Alverson said that both parties told her that the front desk worker told them that the charges were charged to the room, and that no one from the front desk called their rooms. Ms. Alverson said that the front desk worker said that the unknown suspect called the hotel and asked to be transferred to both guest rooms. Ms. Alverson said that because the unknown suspect knew the exact amount that the guest's charges were, she thinks that an employee is behind the suspicious activity. Ms. Alverson said that she is currently running the telephone number against all the employee's numbers. Ms. Alverson said that if she gets anymore information about the suspicious activity, she will call Police back.

On 08/08/2017 at 10:31 hours, Officer Clifton Glenn (60757) reported a memo at 2232 Center St. I spoke with Mrs. Alverson via telephone. She says she met with the employees about giving out information and learned that the employee in question was scammed. She says the employee received a call from the restaurant phone and the party claimed to be with Holiday Inn IT Department. She says he told the employee that the charges on to customer cards were not going through and needed the information. She says the employee gave that information to him.

On 08/06/2017 at 20:30 hours, Officer Springer (66500) responded to a MVT/Passenger Vehicle at 2345 Shallowford Village Dr (Fairfield Inn). Upon arrival police spoke with Jimmy Wilson. He stated sometime between 6:20pm and 7:30pm someone stole his vehicle from the parking lot at the Fairfield Inn. The vehicle was a 2017 white Ford Fusion ([REDACTED]). The vehicle was rented from Enterprise Rent a Car. The vehicle tag provided came back not on file so the vehicle could not be entered into NCIC. Mr. Wilson is going to attempt to find out the VIN number for the vehicle and call back. Inside the vehicle was a Apple Macbook and some clothing. Mr. Wilson said the key fob fell out of his pocket and in between the seats so the vehicle was unlocked with the key inside. The suspect information is unknown at this time. Nothing further.

This case was reviewed and will not have any suspect leads at this time; the victim was contacted and did not have any new information in the case. Based on the lack of leads the case will be suspended, if any leads are later developed the case will then be assigned to an investigator for follow up.

Note: The vehicle info was added to the report and was entered into NCIC.
