20-080288 8/11/2020 2:02:00PM 91Z Miscellaneous Information 520 Menlo St

On 08/11/2020 I observed what appeared to me as a straw purchase at GT Distributors. While in the store I observed a black female and two younger black males walk into the store. I watched as one black male, later identified as Tratyonne Moore, point out several different handguns to the black female, later identified as Eneice Thompson. Mr. Moore asked the staff behind the counter if they had any 10mm handguns. Mr. Moore then squatted down and pointed out a used Glock 22 .40cal handgun. Ms. Thompson asked the staff if she could see the handgun. Ms. Thompson then started going through the paperwork procedures to purchase the handgun. Ms. Thompson told the two male parties to "come over here this is for y'all". While Ms. Thompson was filling out paperwork, the third male party later identified as Moses Houston, asked staff if GT Distributors had any .223 rounds. Ms. Thompson then proceeded, with staff, to the Tennessee side of the store to complete the purchase. Myself and Detective Wolff then went outside to the parking lot to servile the three parties as they left GT Distributors. While outside the business Detective Wolff notified ATF Special Agent Bagwell of the transaction that we witnessed. Agent Bagwell then notified us that he was driving to our location. While outside, I watched as the two male parties walked out of GT Distributors and sat in a Grey Nissan Sedan bearing TN Tag number [REDACTED] registered to Ms. Eneice Thompson. A few minutes later Ms. Thompson exited the store with a black glock case in hand. Mr. Moore exited the drivers seat of the vehicle and went around to the rear seat of the vehicle. Ms. Thompson then sat down in the driver's seat of the vehicle and handed the black case to Mr. Moore in the back seat. At this point Det Wolff and myself decided to follow three parties from GT Distributors. We witnessed the sedan head north on Rossville Blvd to I-24 to S. Germantown Rd to Germantown Rd to 520 Menlo St. We watched as Ms. Thompson and Mr. Houston exited the vehicle to walk into the house. Mr. Moore then exited the backseat of the vehicle carrying the black glock case with an unloaded Glock 22 .40cal pistol inside the case. Myself and Det Wolff then stopped all three parties and ATF Agent Bagwell arrived on scene to investigate if a Straw purchase was made at GT Distributors for the handgun. Det Wolff asked Mr. Moore if the cash in Mr. Moore's hand belonged to Mr. Moore and Mr. Moore said yes. Det Wolff than asked Mr. Moore if he gave Ms. Thompson the cash to purchase the pistol and Mr. Moore spontaneously uttered "Yes". While talking to Ms. Thompson, she stated numerous times that she did not know anything about firearms and brought Mr. Moore and Mr. Houston with her to help in her decision with the purchase of the handgun. Agent Bagwell spoke with all three parties concerning the purchase of the firearm. At the conclusion of the investigation Agent Bagwell did not feel comfortable with charging the three parties with a violation of federal law concerning Straw Purchases. Since Mr. Moore had possession of an unloaded firearm in a case on his own property and was under the supervision of his mother I chose not to charge Mr. Moore with unlawful possession.
