I observed no visible damage to the front of the van. The rear of the Taurus did have scratches on it but none were consistent with being hit directly from the back. M.s Carter stated there was a witness on the porch across the street that saw everything. I made contact with a Joel Richards who stated he was outside during the event. He stated he did not witness anything because his back was turned when the event occurred. I determined that no contact was made between the vehicle due to the lack of evidence.

Cole (343) responded to an attempted MVT/Passenger Vehicle at 1951 Gunbarrel Rd. Upon arrival, Police spoke to complainant Skylar Pittman who stated that she was sitting in her car, a Ford Mustang, in the parking lot at 1816 Gunbarrel road waiting for an appointment. Her vehicle has dark tinted windows and the engine was running. A maroon Kia Optima pulled up next to her car and a black male with dread locks stepped out of the car and pulled on the door handle of her car multiple times. There has been an elevated number of vehicles being stolen in the Chattanooga area and due to the fact that the suspect would have had a hard time seeing if someone was sitting in the drivers seat and that the vehicle was running Police believe that the suspect was attempting to steal the vehicle. When the suspect noticed that Ms. Pittman was sitting in the driver's seat he got back into the Optima and quickly fled the area. Police searched the area for the vehicle and BOLO'd the vehicle to all channels. No further.
