19-098378                      9/29/2019 6:48:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      4960 Gann Store Rd

On 09/29/2019 at 18:55 hours, Officer Luke Simon 971 responded to an unknown trouble at 4960 Gann Store Rd. Upon arrival officers were informed a female party had fallen and injured her foot/leg in the quarry. The victim was located a distance into the quarry and not easily accessed by first responders due to the narrow pathway and amount of equipment required for the rescue. However, due to our access to Greenway Farms equipment such as the John Deere Gator, first responders were able to provide medical care quickly and efficiently. Without our relationship with Greenway Farms, first responders rescue efforts would have been significantly longer causing more pain and anguish to the victim. Greenway Farms has been gracious allowing their equipment to be used by first responders and it is imperative this relationship continue.

19-099094 10/1/2019 3:48:00PM 26C Impersonation 1900 Gunbarrel Rd

On 10/01/2019 at 15:50 hours, Officer Johnston (75394) responded to a Impersonation at 1900 Gunbarrel Rd. On scene I spoke with the complainant ( Mrs. Hartley) who stated that she had a party come into the bank with a FL ID and attempt to withdraw over $6000 from an account. The teller that was working with this party noticed that this had also happened at another location from this same account and held on the FL ID that the party gave. This party walked out of the bank before police arrived and headed towards the mall. When I ran the FL ID it does come back but the picture is different in the system than on the physical ID. The bank made a copy of all the information they had and handed me the fake FL ID. There is no information on the party that was attempting to use the ID other than the picture on the fake FL ID. The party is a white female, unknown age, with a small tattoo on the left side of her chest. I contacted a Fraud investigator but they are gone for the day. I did contact Capt. Chambers who is the OIC for property crimes and informed him of the issue. The information I gathered will be passed along to an Investigator as soon as one is available. Nothing else follows.
