17-008842                      1/27/2017 9:23:00PM                      Miscellaneous                      1400 Market Street

On 1-27-2017 at 2123 hours I, Officer Abbott #864, responded to 1400 Market Street to a report of a traffic crash. Upon arrival, I came into contact with Mr. George Bennett and Ms. Kimberly Billingsley. Also on scene was Mr. Karstan Merrell. All three parties were in a verbal disorder about a single vehicle crash. George was traveling North in the far right lane of Market Street. Karstan was in the turning lane in his personal vehicle facing North. Kimberly was driving a Carta bus South on Market, making a left turn into the Choo-Choo. George stated as he was traveling North on Market, the Carta bus turned in front of him. He stated this caused him to lay his bike down to avoid a collision. Karstan stated he saw this occur while he was in the turning lane of that area. Kimberly stated George was traveling at a high rate of speed. She also stated she was turning left on a green light and checked for oncoming traffic before making her turn. Neither vehicle made contact with one another. No injuries were reported while on scene. George stated he did not require an accident report due to minimal damage on his motorcycle. All parties were separated and left the scene. No further police action was required at the time. D2/R52
