18-096541                      10/7/2018 4:40:00PM                      91Z Miscellaneous Information                      1001 Airport Rd

On 10/07/2018 at 17:05 hours, Officer Hampton (78385) reported a memo at 1001 Airport Rd. On scene, Police spoke with the manager at Alamo Car Rental, Mr. Joshua Koby. Mr. Koby initially called Police for a stolen vehicle. Police learned that the vehicle was a push start vehicle and that the vehicle had been left on and unlocked in the parking lot. Police reviewed the video footage of the incident and saw that a man wearing a red shirt had walked from the Enterprise Car Rental front desk, and went straight to the vehicle that was thought to be stolen. The man in the red shirt got into the vehicle, got out of the vehicle and inspected it, then got back into the vehicle. The man then began to leave the parking lot, stopped for a little while in the parking lot, then proceeded to leave the scene. Police determined that the man most likely was confused and took the wrong rental car. While Police were still on scene, the man returned in a tow truck with the rental car. The man stated that he thought that it was his rental car, and that after he turned the vehicle off, he could not turn it back on, and that he then realized his mistake.

18-096984                      10/8/2018 8:57:00PM                      23C Shoplifting                      480 Greenway View Dr

On 10/08/2018 at approximately 21:02 hours, Officer Andrew Serret (79886) responded to a Shoplifting at WalMart, 480 Greenway View Dr. While working an extra job at the WalMart at this location I was informed of a shoplifting incident occurring. While approaching WalMart employee Margaret Sanders [REDACTED] she had informed me that a white female, heavy set, wearing a pink shirt, with gray sweatpants, and ponytail hairstyle had just left the store past all points of sale with a buggy full of groceries and a vacuum cleaner. Margaret then stated she went out after the suspect, asking the female for the receipt; to which the female just left the buggy on the sidewalk and then proceeded to walk out into the parking lot. After my arrival I then searched the parking lot for the female; to which witnesses stated she got into her vehicle and left (no vehicle description at this time). All merchandise from the store was returned with a total value of $254.24. I was able to pull video camera footage from the loss prevention office, on which I observed the suspect entering the store and leaving with all of the items that she had not paid for after passing all points of sale. I have attached still frames of the suspect in this report, which will be pushed out to an investigator to see if someone can recognize her. Margaret was given a complaint card for her and WalMart's record purposes. Nothing further.

Mr. Lynn stated that he spoke with Farrows Service Center, and that they wanted $200 for the tow before they would release the vehicle. Police spoke with Mr. Accie Gross, who stated that he forgot to call the tow in, and due to the mistake which caused a delay in Mr. Lynn finding the vehicle, he would waive the five day storage fee, and would accept $185 to release the vehicle. Mr. Gross stated that Mr. Lynn's nephew, who is the legal owner of the vehicle, also needs to be present to sign the release. Mr. Lynn called his nephew who stated that he would be en route to Farrows Service Center. Nothing further.

18-097605                      10/10/2018 4:24:00PM                      91Z Field Interview                      2304 Shallowford Village Dr

On 10/10/2018 at 16:29 hours, Officer Shelor, Nicholas (78349) reported a memo at 2304 Shallowford Village Dr. Police were dispatched to 2304 Shallowford Village Dr for an unconscious party lying on the ground behind the gas station. Upon arrival, I found the party lying on the ground and blew the horn and as I did the party raised his head and sat up on his own accord. I then asked him to get up and step to my patrol vehicle. He did get up off the ground and walk to my patrol vehicle without any issues. I then asked him for his information and he was able to recite it without any slurring stating his name was George Forman. There was an unopened alcohol beverage on the corner beside him and an empty one also. I asked if he has had anything to drink and he said that he hasn't and he was just tired from being up all night. He was then allowed to leave the area and walked away on his own. No further.
