On 10/20/2017 at 19:45 hours, Officer C. Blackburn #1086 responded to a suicidal threat at 4604 Colonial Dr. According to dispatch an email had been sent in to the 911 call center saying that they wanted to kill themselves. The only information that dispatch could provide is that the email was received from the email account linked to a Stephanie Pearson at 4604 Colonial Dr. but there was no way to confirm it was Ms. Pearson who sent the email. I attempted to make contact at the residence but received no answer after knocking on all doors multiple times. I could see lights on in the residence and looked through all possible windows for any sign of disturbance and could see none. There was a truck in the driveway and I proceeded next door to see if I could speak with the neighbor.

I spoke with Buffie Fugh, who lives at 4602 Colonial Dr. Ms Fugh said that the truck in the driveway belonged to Ms. Pearsons husband and that Ms. Pearson is usually at work until 20:00 and isn't home yet. Ms. Fugh said that the Pearson's had only recently moved into the home and they had met them a few times but nothing seemed out of the ordinary as of late.

I checked with info channel and found a possible contact number for Ms. Pearson and attempted to call the number, but the call went straight to voicemail.

After exhausting all attempts to reach anyone at 4604 Colonial Dr. and contact attempts by phone I left the area and informed Ms. Fugh that if she sees Ms. Pearson return home to contact police.
