20-107308 10/22/2020 3:22:00PM 26A False Pretenses/Swindle/Confiden 427 E 5th St

On 10/22/2020 at 14:47 hours, Officer C. Glenn (60757) responded to a False Pretenses/Swindle/Confidence Game at 427 E 5th St.

I spoke with Beth Soloff via telephone and email. She stated the following in her words:

Listed below are the events that took place that resulted in Crown Properties Ltd.-Summerville wiring money per instructions from a contractor, William D. Patty Construction by e-mail that had been fraudulently intercepted and the wiring instructions added by the hacker, and $10,300 was not received by William D. Patty Construction company. The funds went into another account that was representing they were William D. Patty Construction Company.

Soloff Properties Inc. is the property manager for Crown Properties Ltd.-Summerville. A shopping center containing 51,250 sf in Summerville, GA.

We recently hired William D. Patty Construction Co. in Summerville, GA to stripe the parking lot, install signs and clear a large ditch of trees and debris that goes all the way around the center for a total price of $10,300.00. (Invoice and work orders attached)

Mr. Patty's crews finished the work in September and billed us the total amount of $10,300.00 on 9/29/2020 , Invoice #7117. The proposal and invoice were sent by e-mail, and most of our correspondence with the work was by e-mail. (I have attached such correspondence and denoted by highlighting in yellow the language that the hackers added when they intercepted the e-mails and before the e-mails were delivered)

Upon receipt of the invoice by e-mailed from William D. Patty construction, I asked Patty to send me a W-9, and also a release of lien for the full amount of payment of $10,300.00. I told him when I received these I would send the money.

About a week later, I received an e-mail from the same Patty e-mail address we had always used stating that Patty's bank account was under an audit and they could not deposit checks at this time would I please send the money as a wire transfer.

I then received another e-mail with the executed W-9, and executed release of lien, and the Bank information as to where the money should be wired. I wired the money through 1st Horizon Bank, and they confirmed the wire went out.

I sent Patty an e-mail asking if they received the wire transfer, and they said they had received an e-mail from me stating that no wire transfer was sent I had misinformed them. (I did not send this e-mail).

When I received my bank statement yesterday, I made a copy and sent to Patty to verify the wire transfer had been made and confirm they owed me $25.00 for the wire transfer fee. And asked them to confirm with their bank that the wire had been received.

They again stated they didn't have the money by wire. I contacted my bank and she sent me the wiring information and Patty verified that that is NOT their bank account that I wired the money to.

Upon further investigation by Patty, they have discovered that their e-mail has been hacked, and e-mails they were sending were changed before they were delivered to me, and they have received e-mails from me that I did NOT send. They have also verified with Chase that the hackers have set up a bank account and still have the money that I wired from Crown Properties Ltd.-Summerville in the amount of $10,300.00 That is where my money went.

TO

10/24/2020 11:59:43PM

This is clearly a case of hacking into our e-mail correspondence with fraud as they changed information in e-mails without our knowledge or consent of where money was to be sent and received. The Hackers were representing that they were William D. Patty Construction.

Chase Bank has informed William D. Patty Construction Co. that the account where Crown Properties Ltd. Summerville sent the money was listed as:

At that time of night, school is not in session, the male was far too old to be in school as well, and he did not appear to be homeless. I believed he was carrying the back pack to possibly store any stolen items. I made contact with Joshua Ownby. Mr. Ownby did not have any active warrants, and he stated that he was going from his friend's house on Mississippi Ave to another friend's house on Gann Store Rd. Mr. Ownby gave me consent to search his backpack, and nothing of an illegal nature was found. Mr. Ownby was let go at that time. Nothing further.
