18-101360 10/21/2018 3:05:00AM 91Z Field Interview 600 N Orchard Knob Ave

On 10/21/2018 at 03:05 hours, Officer Adam Krystaponis (75508) observed a silver Nissan Versa hatchback () parked at 600 N Orchard Knob Ave. Due to the late hour, the rec center being closed, and having recovered stolen vehicles from this location at previous times, I made contact with the only occupant, Ms. Lavina Powell. Ms. Powell was sleeping in the backseat of her car when I arrived. Ms. Powell stated she had been hanging out with some friends, and was headed back down to Georgia, but she wanted to take a nap so she wouldn't fall asleep driving, so she stopped here to nap in her back seat. Ms. Powell provided identification upon request, and was found to have a valid license and no wants or warrants. I instructed Ms. Powell that she needed to be gone from the property before the rec center opened, and she stated she would be leaving soon. No further.

Mr. Cooper stated that they decided to meet in the parking lot in front of Sportsman Warehouse. Mr. Cooper stated that he arrived prior to the male, and that the male arrived at about 18:45. Mr. Cooper stated that the male came walking from Cycle Gear, and had a black helmet in his hands. Mr. Cooper stated that it appeared that he had just bought the helmet as he was peeling stickers off of it. Mr. Cooper stated that the male told him that he was dropped off because he was planning on riding the motorcycle home. Mr. Cooper stated that the male looked at the bike for about ten minutes, then asked if he could take the motorcycle for a test ride down to the East Ridge exit and back. Mr. Cooper stated that he agreed to the request, and at 18:55, the male left on the motorcycle headed south on Hwy 153 from Lee Hwy. Mr. Cooper stated that about twenty to thirty minutes later, the male messaged him saying that he stopped to get gas at the BP on the Brainerd exit, and that the motorcycle wouldn't start back up. Mr. Cooper asked him if he meant the BP on E Brainerd near I-75, and that the male told him he was at the only BP in the area. Mr. Cooper stated that he went to the BP, neither the male nor his motorcycle was there. Mr. Cooper stated that he asked the clerk if she had seen a red motorcycle, and she told him that no motorcycles have come through recently. Mr. Cooper stated that he continued to message the male party, and that he just kept saying he was at the BP. Mr. Cooper stated that he went to several BP's in the area, and was unable to locate the male or his motorcycle. Mr. Cooper stated that he told the male that he needed to return with the motorcycle, or that he was going to call the Police. Mr. Cooper stated that the male said that he was going to return, but that thirty minutes later, he still hadn't returned. When asked, Mr. Cooper told Police that he did not ask for any ID from the male party prior to allowing him to test drive the motorcycle. Mr. Cooper stated that the male was white, about mid to late twenties, was wearing a white t-shirt, khaki pants, and a green backpack. Police attempted to ID the male party using the letgo app user name, but Mr. Cooper was unable to say if any of the people were the same male. Police went to Cycle Gear to attempt to get video of the male party, but Cycle Gear was closed. Police entered the motorcycle into NCIC as stolen. NIC#: V980682930

214 Pembroke Ln

On 10/26/2018 at 22:40 hours, Officer Justin Brumbaugh (0066622) reported a memo at 214 Pembroke Ln. Michael Bedard called police after $1,090.00 was transferred from his Bank of America bank account. He received a notification that the money had been transferred to the account of his wife, Star Bedard, who he has been separated from for about a month. The two agreed to part ways for a time and separate their accounts with their own passwords, but Star apparently guessed the correct password and transferred the money without Michael's consent. I informed Michael that I could not prosecute her for the unauthorized transfer because they are legally married; however, Bank of America filed a claim and will be investigating the incident. At this time no police action will be taken beyond documenting the unauthorized transfer.
