17-112208 11/18/2017 9:56:00PM 91Z Field Interview 5764 Highway 153

On 11/18/2017 at 21:56 hours, Officer D. Turnbull (71992) reported suspicious activity at 5764 Highway 153. At around 1730-1800hrs, Crystal Lea was at the Walmart at 501 Signal Mountain Rd with her son. Ms. Lea stated that her son walked over to look at a toy that was on display, but that she could still see him. Ms. Lea said that she saw an elderly white male with a winter cap on his head walk up to her son and start talking to him. As Ms. Lea walked over to her son, she heard the male party tell her son "Do you know where I can find this toy? Can you show me where it is?" Ms. Lea told him no and took her son and left. Ms. Lea was able to take a picture of the elderly male and stopped to tell loss prevention about the incident because she found it very unsettling and was not sure what the male's intentions were. Ms. Lea then left and loss prevention tracked the male party down and told him that he needed to leave. The male party left in a Chevy Cavalier with [REDACTED]. Loss prevention did not call police to make a report of the suspicious activity. At around 2130hrs, Walmart loss prevention notified police via Facebook to be on the lookout for a white elderly male who was driving a Chevy Cavalier with [REDACTED]. They also posted a picture of the male party. I located the vehicle parked on the side of the parking lot of Walmart at 5764 Hwy 153. When I approached the car, the male party, Larry Frederick, was sitting in the driver's seat with his pants unzipped and open and was watching a video on his phone. I took Mr. Frederick out of the car and patted him down. Mr. Frederick put down his phone and I saw that it was playing a TV show. Mr. Frederick gave permission for police to search his car. Police did not locate anything illegal. Police did locate some transvestite porn in his trunk. Mr. Frederick did have an unloaded bolt action rifle in his trunk, but no rounds were located in the vehicle. Mr. Frederick told me that he lives in Georgia and also lives on a boat in Mobile, AL. Mr. Frederick told me that he was here this weekend because he has to do public work days in Hamilton County because of a reckless driving charge he has. Mr. Frederick told me that he was just going to sleep in his car in the Walmart parking lot for the night. Mr. Frederick did not have any active warrants, so I told Mr. Frederick that he needed to move on because Walmart did not want him on their lot.
