This afternoon around 1:00 PM I was driving on the golf cart back to the office when I saw a man lying on the ground appearing to be unconscious in the parking lot where empty parking spaces were in front of building one. There was a white vehicle with the driver's side door open near by. As I got closer and started speaking to him, he seemed startled but began to lift his head up slightly and was muttering a few sentences that were unclear. Being right next to the maintenance shop, I ran over to get help from the guys and when Tom and I went back over he was now sitting upright on the ground and I was able to see that he was gripping some sort of spray can. He sounded choked up and cleared his throat over and over while telling me he was okay, didn't want any help and continued to repeat that he has messed up and it was on his behalf.

Police identified the party as Johnny Garner. at the time Mr. Garner refused medical treatment. At 1430 hours, police were called back to 1175 Pineville Rd. for a medical call. Mr. Garner had called for an ambulance to take him to the hospital to be checked out. At that time, management learned that Mr. Garner was not allowed to be around the resident in apartment number 1 by the caregiver.
